Driving The Next Startup Wave

Get Ready For IEEE N3XT® Keynote & AlphaLab Gear International Hardware Cup!

A Discussion on Culture, Diversity, Inclusion & Successful Scaling within the Startup Environment

Investors and innovators both agree - Pittsburgh, PA is poised to become one of the USA's most powerful hubs for technology entrepreneurship in 2018.
That’s why we’re going to be there on April 18th of this year for an IEEE N3XT® Keynote Event in collaboration with the AlphaLab Gear Hardware Cup - International Finals. There’s still time to join us at this free event!

Startup Spotlight:
Bell Helicopter

Could the future of flying include AI in the cockpit? The great minds behind Bell Helicopter certainly think so. Bob Hastings, the executive vice president of this startup, discussed their vision for the future of air travel, including automated pilots and artificially intelligent stewards. We spoke with him further at 2017’s SXSW Interactive Festival.

Watch our conversation with Bell Helicopter executive VP Bob Hastings at SXSW 2017 on our IEEEtv channel!
